In the Shark level, in order to win a tournament, the player has to successfully complete 5 racks. With each successful round the challenge gets harder when 30 seconds is dropped from the total time!

Introduction

A research expedition to the Arctic finds itself under siege by alien invaders and sends out for help. The alien attack is led by a main alien ship and it's subsidiary satellite ships. You have been assigned to get essential ammunition into the base camp, using which the aliens can be destroyed. However to get to the base camp at the heart of the Arctic you will have to brave icy and mountainous terrain and direct attacks by the satellite ships. Along the way, specially reinforced igloos previously built by the expedition team, provide temporary shelter from alien attack and allow you to fill up on ammunition and fuel for the snowmobile.

Game Description

This game offers gamers and adventure seekers an action packed experience captured in well-detailed and realistic graphics. Use the horizontal and vertical firing capabilities of the snow mobile to get the better of the aliens. Manoeuvring the snow mobile over treacherous terrain and also to dodge alien fire will require lots of skill. Watch out for the Redeemer, the most deadly of the satellite alien ships. Not only is it more difficult to destroy, it's fire is powerful enough to create dangerous craters in the terrain. You need 5 rounds of fire to destroy the Redeemer ship. So, do look out for those craters on the way!

You occasionally get a brief respite in a level when the main alien ship recalls the satellite ships for reenergizing. With exciting levels to come, enjoy countless hours of fun with this great game loaded on your mobile

Introduction

The island of Kiki has been taken over by an evil army. Rescue forces are sending in paratroopers as part of their mission to rescue the island. The brave islanders of Kiki use their little boats in helping the paratroopers land safely on the island. As a patriotic islander of Kiki, you will have to play your part in saving your island. Game Description

You will have to use your boat to help in helping the paratroopers land safely. Every paratrooper that ends up in the shark-infested waters is as good as lost.

If that wasn't bad enough, you also have to avoid the heavy artillery from the fighter planes of the evil invaders, who are doing their best to ensure the failure of the paratrooper landings.

If you get blown to smithereens by a missile or if you lose more than five paratroopers, you are considered to have failed in your mission. So gather your wits and look sharp, you have an important cause to fight and win.

Rescuers is a fun, pick-up and play type, action game with simple to use controls and high quality graphics, outstanding performance.

Introduction

Want to clown around for a while? Get your hands on this game. Circus Act is a unique mind game that could keep your hands twiddling for a while. This fun game kicks off in a circus ring where we meet two happy-go-lucky clowns helping trapeze artists perform their acts. The trapeze artists are attempting to perform somersaults starting off from one end of the ring. At the same time the two clowns make their way around the ring with a trampoline, helping the artists achieve their feat. The clowns should try to balance the trapeze artists on the trampoline while they perform from one swing to the next one. Now you will have to help these fellows get all the artists safely across the ring. Each artist safely brought across to the next swing accounts for a score point.

Game Description

Circus Act is an easy to understand, simple to control and quick to learn fun game engaging you in a near perfect circus atmosphere of fun and frolic. The game can be played in different levels of varying intensity. The game starts off by trapeze artists coming in one by one from swing on the left end. Take care that the artists do not fall elsewhere because ten misses will call for the end of the game. Your aim should be to deliver maximum number of artists across the ring. As the levels progress the speed of entry of the artists increases. You will have to play intelligent moves and try balancing multiple artists on the trampoline.

A unique game designed for players of any age group.

Introduction

Jump and Flip is a challenging and fun skill game where you have a frog in a pond filled with leaves. In this exciting game the player's aim should be to transform all leaves in the pond into lilies.

The goal lies in transforming the pond filled with leaves into a beautiful pond filled with lilies in the minimum number of moves. Jump and Flip calls for a good deal of brainstorming and can be played in four exciting levels.

Siemens M65	Version 3.0
Siemens C65	Version 3.0
Siemens SL65	Version 3.0

Game Description

Whenever the frog leaps over an adjacent leaf or over a straight sequence of leaves the respective leaves transform into lilies. The frog can jump in any direction, even diagonally. Remember that the frog cannot jump to an next lying adjacent leaf from a point but can only jump over a leaf or leaves to reach a destination.

However when the frog jumps over lilies they transform back to leaves. So place your moves wisely to finally get a pond full of lilies. Possible moves, the frog can make from a point, are indicated by some helpful butterflies fluttering over the pond.

The game ends when the player succeeds in flipping all leaves into lilies in the minimum number of jumps.

Introduction

“One little, two little, three little antsies...(GULP)...four little, five little, six little antsies...!” That was Arvin’s favourite song while he decided which ant he’d gulp down...the ants on the other hand went about their business! In fact, Arvin spent the entire summer doing just this! And now...

...Winter is just around the corner! What a price Arvin will have to pay for the summer he wasted! The half crazed armadillo needs to collect his winter stash and fast! In Arvin’s panic stricken condition he’s not inclined to notice where he’s going until he hits something “Oops, excuse me!”

Game Description

Arvin has gardens and gardens to go through – collect all the food he can find or when the cold northerly winds starts to blow he’s going to be crying of a bellyache when he finds nothing to eat! The fertile fields are right now quite abundant with worms, strawberries, mushrooms, grapes, etc. If he doesn’t get himself trapped in a corner he can collect all the eatables and then pass onto the next garden...But he better watch out! In his current half crazed state he tends to roll all the way till he hits a block. Watch out especially for the snails for if he knocks into one of those – he’s just too dizzy to go on!

Introduction

The government has intercepted an alien communication, "Operation to invade and enslave all humans is underway. Stage one is to produce an army big enough to overpower every single human!"

Alien invasion! The government hated to do it but there was no other way – "Call Jack Stern!" Jack Stern makes no apologies for being a mercenary. But this time are the stakes too high? The government can assist Jack on board the ship but after that he was on his own and every human on earth would be in his debt!

He doesn't really care about that – "Just give me my money! I ain't no hero!"

The government did its part – got Jack on board...he needs to destroy the alien producing machines – but there are indescribable dangers around every corner. He could find himself swamped with unimaginably horrible aliens if he doesn't get to the machines on time.

Game Description

The government was able to provide Jack with some satellite pictures. This gives him a general idea of what he can expect. Bombs must be collected and detonated in front of the alien production units. Energy packs must also be collected. These are mandatory to the mission.

There are dangers all over the place – robotic sentinels; overhead firing incinerators; alien balls of green fire that will turn any human that comes in contact with it into 'shish-ka-bob'. Timing is crucial, if Jack doesn't hurry he's going to be swamped by aliens that are under serious production!
